

Surveyed, Engraved and Published under the direction of Alfred E.C. Seelye, Geologist, at the GEOLOGICAL SURVEY OFFICE MELBOURNE. C.D. H. Aplin, Assistant; L. Ross, Engraver; H. H. Lithographed by E. Shepherd.

NOTE: The Outline compiled by J. Wilkinson from Original Plans in the Railway and Survey Departments.

Legend table with columns for Alluvial, Recent, Pliocene, Miocene, Oligocene, Mesozoic, Lower Silurian, and Upper Volcanic. It lists various geological units and their corresponding symbols and colors.

Scale - Two inches to a Mile.

Deposits of sand, clay, & gravel at the edge of the upper field drifts... Recent Gold drifts: County Boundary, Quartz Reefs.

10 NW