

Printed at the Mining and Geological Department, Government Printing Office, Melbourne by J. Finnie & J.M. Ferguson.

Surveyed, Engraved and Published under the direction of Alfred R. C. Selwyn, Geologist at the GEOLOGICAL SURVEY OFFICE MELBOURNE.

Geologically Surveyed by Richard Dainton, Field Geologist, 1861, assisted by C.S. Wilson, etc. Outline & Writing, Engraved by Brown & Sligh, Lithographer by Richard Shepherd, Published, 1863.

Note: The Outline Compiled by J. Wilkinson, from Originals in the Surveyor General's Department.

Legend and scale information including geological symbols for Alluvial, Post Pliocene, Miocene, and various rock types, along with a scale of two inches to a mile and a list of specimen localities.